

Outside Sales Representative – Full Time

Do you have industrial or commercial sales experience?

This Sales Representative role offers you the opportunity to embrace your entrepreneurial spirit and represent a growing and expanding company.

- Industrial, commercial, residential refuse collection
- Heavy and light duty towing

Our preference is that you already have outside sales experience, but as long as you are highly motivated, energetic and organized, this could be your chance to break into sales. Working in outside sales you will be calling on current and prospective customers. We're looking for a go-getter who is excited to learn the industry, comfortable in business-to-business outside sales environment and ready to build a career.

To be a good fit for the Sales Representative opportunity you will have:

- Interpersonal presence and the drive and desire to build a sales career.
- A solid work/academic history demonstrating commitment and reliability.
- Strong communication skills both verbal and written.
- Solid organizational and time management skills.
- Sound reasoning and problem solving abilities.
- An entrepreneurial spirit and hands-on work ethic.

We offer our sales representative a base salary plus commission, bonus opportunities and an excellent benefit package including 401K and medical.

Our mission is to work with our customers to provide solutions to meet their needs and expectations. Our employees recognize that our company is success driven by treating others as we want to be treated, creating a team environment that makes for a fulfilling, enjoyable and prosperous career.
